

Victoria Police Department Entrance Exam Study Guide

The Entrance Exam for entry level Victoria Police Department employees measures the basic skills necessary to perform successfully within our Police Department.

The test covers skills in four areas:

- (1) Math
- (2) Reading Comprehension
- (3) Language
- (4) Writing

Each test section is timed (between 15 and 25 minutes each), and contains between 10 and 25 questions. The tests will be graded based on how many questions are answered correctly on each section.

Therefore, given the limited time in which to answer questions, examinees should focus their time and attention on the questions that they find easier. Spending too much time on one question can result in the examinee running out of time and not being able to answer other questions.

The test booklet may be used as scratch paper, but otherwise, examinees will not be allowed to utilize calculators, dictionaries or any other aid.

Reading Comprehension Skills

In the reading comprehension portion of the exam, examinees will read passages relating to police duty and will then answer questions based on these passages. No prior knowledge of law or law enforcement will be needed to answer the questions. All the information needed to answer the questions will be provided in the passage. The passages in the exam are not intended to represent actual law of any particular state. The passages present potential rules and laws relating to police work.

Three different types of questions are asked in this portion of the exam.

- (1) True/false questions in which a statement will be given concerning a passage or a sample report form. The statement will be either accurate and true based on the passage or form, or the statement will be inaccurate and false according to the passage or form.
- (2) Questions in which examinees will be asked to choose the correct answer according to the information presented in the passage or on a sample report form.
- (3) Questions in which examinees will be asked to choose the alternative that best completes the sentence.

On the reading comprehension section of the exam, there are 25 questions similar to the ones below, and examinees are given 25 minutes to complete the section.

Sample questions

Read the sample passage below and then answer the sample questions. An example of each type of question is provided.

Questions 1-3 are based on the following passage:

Every inmate entering the jail must be considered a potential carrier of disease and contraband. In order to protect the employees and inmates of the jail, a thorough search of each inmate must be conducted. This search should be performed after booking but before the person has had an opportunity to enter the cell area.

1. According to the sample passage, inmates entering the jail can enter the cell area before they are searched:
 - True
 - False

2. According to the sample passage, who of the following is a potential carrier of disease and contraband?
